

VIVIAN LIE

ACTRESS, SCREENWRITER, DIRECTOR

MY HISTORY

Screenwriter, director and versatile film and stage actress. Vivian is from a multicultural background having grown up in Brazil with parents of Japanese descent and lived in the U.S. for a large part of her life. She's able to bring the richness of her worldly experience to her work as an actress, screenwriter and director.

donna
baldwin agency

brad@donnabaldwin.com
303.561.1199
www.donnabaldwin.com

PHYSICAL DETAILS

Height: 5'4" Weight: 125 pounds
Hair Color: Dark Brown
Eye Color: Dark Brown
Shoe Size: 7

LANGUAGES

English - Fluent
Portuguese - Fluent
Spanish - Advanced
French - Intermediate

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Short Film "Luci D." directed and written by Florilène Munoz and Vivian Lie

- Played the Lead in "Luci D."

Short Film "Hatchet Lady Crimes" Produced by Sony & Comcast

- Played the Lead in "Hatchet Lady Crimes"

Feature Film "Legacy of the Tengu" directed by Mark Steven Grove

- Played a Supporting Character in "Legacy of the Tengu"

Short Film "Something Better" directed and written by Elgin Cahill and Vivian Lie

- Played the Lead in "Something Better"

Feature Film "Every November" directed by Elgin Cahill

- Played the Lead in "Every November"

Short Film "Cheese!" directed by Damien Patrik

- Played the Lead in "Cheese!"

Play "A Midnight Summer's Dream" by Hudson Reed Ensemble

- Played Hermia in "A Midnight Summer's Dream"

TRAINING

Front Range Acting Studio - Denver CO

Acting for the camera

Escola de Teatro Ewerton de Castro - Brazil

Drama school, theater studies